Scholarship Committee Report: 7 applicants and committee is currently reviewing

Communications and Public Relations Committee Report: Members currently involved with RCONA IT met with Ellen Debach-Riley and Ann Newberry to develop initial contact and set goals for communications. Ann will lead those duties.

Neighborhood Spotlight Presentation Sierra Vista: Ellen Debach- Riley gave presentation. NA has been active with RCONA since 2014, currently connect with 100 residents. Neighborhood promotes safety, preserves their neighborhood history and likes to build relationships. Ways they communicate Facebook, NA Website, Nextdoor Neighbor which has 485 residents active, also communicates via fliers.

City Update Brian Jacobson:

- City buildings will open up on Monday March 22nd with limited services.
- Program called Emergency Rental Assistance will begin March 22nd, city has $5 million to help renters pay rent and utilities. Residents can apply at renthelpplacer.com.
- Residents inquiring about the loud booms in west Roseville, city said they are air cannons farmers use to chase off geese.

- Rate adjustment workshop will be on April 13th, for residents that want to attend they are asking you to register on the city website, workshop time was not mentioned.

Roseville Fire Jamie Garrett: Administration office opening back up week of March 22nd, while firehouses remain closed to the public due to covid. Fire department is encouraging residents to get vaccinated.

Round Table proceeded with abbreviated comments as follows.

Updates from NA Representatives (shown above):

Maidu: 21st annual garage sale April 24th. Had city representatives out to discuss the parks and they are requesting a BMX bike area. Also mentioned possibly a outdoor exercise area.

Cherry Glen: Neighborhood meeting coming up. Talked about doing a garage sale maybe in the summer.

Roseville Heights: See Los Cerritos update

Pleasant Grove: Not Present
